go back to Mississippi, go back to Alabama, go back to South Carolina, go back to Georgia, go back to Virginia, go back to the cities, knowing that somehow this situation can and will be changed. Let us not wallow in this sewage of disappointment. Though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still have a dream. It is a dream deliberately kept alive and I am continuing to work upon it, that one day on the red hills of Georgia the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave owners will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls as sisters and brothers.
